Netherlands

The units of Mori Hills REIT Investment Corporation (“Mori Hills” or the “AIF”) are being marketed in the Netherlands under Section 1:13b of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht, or the “Wft”). In accordance with this provision, Mori Building Investment Management Co., Ltd. (the “AIFM”) has submitted a notification with the Dutch Authority for the Financial Markets. The units of Mori Hills will not, directly or indirectly, be offered, sold, transferred or delivered in the Netherlands, except to or by individuals or entities that are qualified investors (gekwalficeerde beleggers) within the meaning of Article 1:1 of the Wft, and as a consequence neither the AIFM nor Mori Hills is subject to the license requirement pursuant to the Wft. Consequently, neither the AIFM nor Mori Hills is subject to supervision of the Dutch Central Bank (De Nederlandsche Bank, “DNB”) or the Netherlands Authority for Financial Markets (Autoriteit Financiële Markten, the “AFM”) and this Article 23 AIFMD Prospectus is not subject to approval by the AFM. No approved prospectus is required to be published in the Netherlands pursuant to Article 3 of the Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the “Prospectus Regulation”) as amended and applicable in the Netherlands. The AIFM is therefore solely subject to limited ongoing regulatory requirements as referred to in Article 42 of the AIFMD.

United Kingdom

The units of Mori Hills are being marketed in the United Kingdom pursuant to Article 59 of the United Kingdom Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013. In accordance with this provision, the AIFM has notified the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”) of its intention to offer these units in the United Kingdom.

For the purposes of the United Kingdom Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as amended “FSMA”), Mori Hills is an unregulated collective investment scheme which has not been authorized by the FCA.

Accordingly, any communication of an invitation or inducement to invest in Mori Hills may only be made to (i) investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, as amended, or “the Order”; or (ii) high net worth companies falling within Articles 49(2)(a) to (d) of the Order and other persons to whom it may lawfully be communicated (all such persons referred to under (i) and (ii) of this paragraph, together being referred to as “Relevant Persons”).

In the United Kingdom, this document and its contents are directed only at Relevant Persons and must not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not Relevant Persons. The transmission of this document and its contents in the United Kingdom to any person other than a Relevant Person is unauthorized and may contravene the FSMA and other United Kingdom securities laws and regulations.

This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the AIFMD as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. This document is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of any offer to buy the units of Mori Hills REIT Investment Corporation.

Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors

In addition to the restrictions under the AIFMD, as retained by the United Kingdom in its domestic laws, the units of Mori Hills are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom. For these purposes of this provision, a “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“EUWA”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; and the expression “offer” includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the international units to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the international units.

Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014, as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”), for offering or selling the international units or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the United Kingdom has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the international units or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

European Economic Area

In addition to the restrictions under the AIFMD, the units of Mori Hills are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (“EEA”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU, (as amended, “MiFID II”); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation, as amended. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the units of Mori Hills or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the units of Mori Hills, or otherwise making them available, to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

Article 23 (1)(a)
Objectives of the AIF	The core strategy of Mori Hills REIT Investment Corporation (“Mori Hills” or the “AIF”) is “investment in the city”, which is based on the belief that mixed-use urban spaces, combining uses such as work, residence, recreation, rest and study, create synergies that enhance customer satisfaction, attract more people traffic into the area and promote the

	area development as a whole. “City” in this context refers to not merely a geographic location with an aggregation of buildings, but a “space” which integrates various needs of the people’s urban lifestyle and includes the entirety of the economic and cultural activities of the people that gather in such space. Mori Hills believes that “investment in the city” will continue to provide stable rental revenue and a solid foundation for portfolio growth to achieve its investment objective of maximizing the value of the unitholders’ investments over a long term.
Investment strategy	Mori Hills aims to achieve its objectives through the following strategies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continue to seek premium properties in central Tokyo. Mori Hills seeks to continue its focus on investing in “premium properties”, and in mixed-use urban spaces that combine uses such as work, residence, recreation, rest and study, to create synergies that enhance customer satisfaction, attract more people traffic into the area and promote the area development as a whole. • Leverage the acquisition pipeline of the Sponsor and the Mori Building Group. Mori Hills and Mori Building Investment Management Co., Ltd. (the “AIFM”) intend to achieve continued growth in its portfolio by leveraging assistance from Mori Building Co., Ltd. (the “Sponsor”) through the support agreement with the Sponsor. The Sponsor has agreed to give Mori Hills preferential negotiation rights and will provide Mori Hills with information on properties that meet its investment criteria before providing it to any other person, subject to certain exceptions. • Utilize the asset management experience of the AIFM. Mori Hills seeks to take advantage of the knowledge, experience and network of the AIFM in the real estate market to help it locate and acquire properties that fit its investment strategy. • Focus on maintaining and increasing NOI yields and asset values. Mori Hills intends to continue acquiring properties that will maintain or enhance portfolio net operating income yields. • Leverage its relationship with the Sponsor as its property manager. The Sponsor acts as the property manager for nearly all of Mori Hills’ properties. Mori Hills will use its relationship with the Sponsor to ensure thoughtful and efficient management of its properties. • Increase the number of pass-through master leases over the medium to long term. Mori Hills will seek to increase the percentage of pass-through master leases and decrease the percentage of fixed-rent master leases in its portfolio over the medium to long term in order to capture the upside of market conditions. • Optimize operating costs. Mori Hills seeks to maintain operating costs at an appropriate level through efficient operational management and regular review of operating costs, while not sacrificing competitiveness and tenant satisfaction. • Maintain strong tenant relations. Mori Hills seeks to secure attractive tenants for its properties to increase the value of its portfolio over the medium to long term by maintaining long-term relationships of trust with qualified tenants. • Improve leasing management. The AIFM intends to continue to work with property managers to evaluate the operational and leasing status of the tenants and formulate and execute plans for improvement.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Establish long-term maintenance and repair plans. Mori Hills has established long-term plans for maintenance, repairs and renovations to maintain the value of the assets in its portfolio.
Types of assets the AIF may invest in	Real estate, trust beneficiary interests relating to real estate, real estate-related securities, specified assets and other assets, including assets that are incidental to real estate investment, such as trademark rights and copyrights.
Techniques it may employ and all associated risks	Mori Hills makes investments primarily in high-quality, large-scale properties exhibiting superior earthquake resistance in central Tokyo with a strategic focus on “premium properties”, which are defined as office buildings, residential properties and retail and other facilities with competitive advantages in terms of quality, scale and other specifications that are expected to continue into the future. The principal risks with respect to investment in Mori Hills are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any adverse conditions in the Japanese economy could adversely affect Mori Hills’ properties; • Mori Hills may not be able to acquire properties to execute its growth and investment strategy in a manner that is accretive to earnings and the amount of dividends per unit; • The acquisition of own investment units by Mori Hills is subject to uncertainties as to whether it will be implemented, the number of units to be acquired, the timing and price of the disposition or redemption of the acquired units; • The high concentration in Mori Hills’ portfolio of premium properties in central Tokyo could have a material adverse effect on Mori Hills’ business; • Increases in prevailing market interest rates may increase Mori Hills’ interest expense and may result in a decline in the market price of Mori Hills’ units; • Mori Hills’ reliance on the Sponsor and other Mori Building Group companies could have a material adverse effect on Mori Hills’ business; • Competition for tenants may adversely affect Mori Hills’ ability to retain its current tenants, find new tenants and achieve favorable rental rates; • Mori Hills may suffer large losses if any of its properties incur damage from a natural or man-made disaster or acts of violence; • Mori Hills may incur unexpected expenses, expenditure or other losses for repair or maintenance of its properties; • Mori Hills may be strictly liable for any unforeseen loss, damage or injury suffered by a third party at its properties; • Because most of Mori Hills’ operating expenses are largely fixed, it may suffer adverse consequences if its rental revenues decline; • Illiquidity in the real estate market may limit Mori Hills’ ability to grow or adjust its portfolio; • Defects relating to Mori Hills’ properties may adversely affect its financial condition and results of operations; • Mori Hills relies on expert reports for appraisals and PML percentages, and these reports are subject to significant uncertainties; • Mori Hills relies on industry and market data that are subject to significant uncertainties; • The environmental assessments of Mori Hills’ properties made prior to its ownership may not have uncovered all environmental liabilities, and Japanese laws subject property owners to strict environmental liabilities;

This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the AIFMD as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. - To the extent Mori Hills' purchases or commits to purchase properties still in the development stage, it will be exposed to increased risks and uncertainties;
- Mori Hills may lose rental revenues in the event of lease terminations, decreased lease renewals, defaults, nonpayment by tenants on rental obligations or requests or demands for reduction in rents or if tenants experience financial difficulties or insolvency;
- Any of Mori Hills' current or future properties, may violate earthquake resistance or other building codes, and any such buildings may collapse in even minor earthquakes or may be required to be strengthened or demolished by Mori Hills at significant expense;
- Master lease agreements expose Mori Hills to the risk of becoming an unsecured creditor of the Sponsor as Mori Hills' master lessee in the event of its insolvency;
- Decreases in tenant lease and guarantee deposits would increase Mori Hills' funding costs;
- Any inability to obtain financing for future acquisitions, or any restrictions on Mori Hills' activities under its financing arrangements, could adversely affect Mori Hills;
- A high LTV ratio may increase Mori Hills' exposure to changes in interest rates and adversely affect Mori Hills;
- Mori Hills may suffer impairment losses relating to its properties and may also suffer adverse tax effects upon recognizing impairments;
- A downgrading of Mori Hills' credit rating may affect payments of principal of or interest on its bonds;
- The past performance of the Sponsor is not an indicator or guarantee of Mori Hills' future results;
- Mori Hills' financial statements are prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP, which differs in certain material respects from IFRS, U.S. GAAP and generally accepted accounting principles and financial reporting standards in other jurisdictions; and
- An epidemic such as SARS, MERS and COVID-19 may have a significant long-term adverse impact on economic activities which in turn may adversely affect the performance of the portfolio and market price of Mori Hills' units.

In addition, Mori Hills is subject to the following risks:

- Mori Hills' success depends on the performances of service providers to which it is required to assign various key functions;
- There are potential conflicts of interest between Mori Hills and certain Mori Building Group companies, including the AIFM;
- Mori Hills depends on the efforts of key personnel of the AIFM;
- Unitholders have limited control over Mori Hills' investment policies;
- J-REITs and their asset managers are subject to tight supervision by the regulatory authorities;
- If unitholders do not exercise their voting rights, Mori Hills may count their votes in favor of proposals at a general meeting of unitholders;
- Mori Hills' failure to satisfy a complex series of requirements pursuant to Japanese tax regulations would disqualify it from certain taxation benefits and significantly reduce its distributions to unitholders;
- If the Japanese tax authorities disagree with the interpretations used by Mori Hills for prior periods, Mori Hills may be forced to pay additional taxes for those periods;
- Mori Hills may not be able to benefit from reductions in certain real estate transfer taxes enjoyed by qualified J-REITs;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Changes in Japanese tax laws may significantly increase Mori Hills' tax burden; • Mori Hills expects to be treated as a "passive foreign investment company" for U.S. federal income tax purposes; • Unitholders may be subject to U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) withholding tax after 2018; • Mori Hills' ownership rights in some of its properties may be declared invalid or limited; • Mori Hills may lose its rights in a property it owns if the purchase of the property is recharacterized as a secured financing; • Mori Hills' leasehold or subleasehold rights may be terminated or may not be asserted against a third party in some cases, or Mori Hills' leases with its tenants could be modified; • Properties for which third parties hold leasehold rights in the land and own the buildings may subject Mori Hills to various risks; • Many of Mori Hills' properties are in a form of compartmentalized ownership interests (kubun shoyū-ken) and Mori Hills' rights relating to such properties may be affected by the intentions of other owners; • Many of Mori Hills' properties are in the form of property co-ownership (kyōyū) or trust beneficiary interest coownership (junkyōyū) and Mori Hills' rights relating to such properties may be affected by the intentions of other owners; • Some of Mori Hills' properties are subject to preferential purchase rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights held by lessees, tenants or other third parties; • Tax increases or adverse changes in applicable laws may affect Mori Hills' potential liabilities relating to Mori Hills' properties and operations; • Mori Hills' costs of complying with regulations applicable to its properties could adversely affect its results of operations; • Mori Hills owns a substantial portion of its properties through trust beneficiary interests and may suffer losses as a trust beneficiary; • The AIFMD may negatively affect Mori Hills' ability to market its units in the EEA and increase its compliance costs associated with marketing of its units in the EEA; and • Mori Hills' units may be deemed to constitute "plan assets" for ERISA purposes, which may lead to the rescission of certain transactions, tax or fiduciary liability and Mori Hills being held in violation of ERISA requirements.
Any applicable investment restrictions	Mori Hills is subject to investment restrictions under Japanese laws and regulations, including the Act on Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations (the "ITA") and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (the "FIEA"). These restrictions require that Mori Hills must invest primarily in specified assets as defined in the ITA. Specified assets include, but are not limited to, securities, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, and surface rights (chijō-ken) (i.e. the right to use land for the purpose of having a structure on it), as well as trust beneficiary interests in securities, real estate, leaseholds of real estate and surface rights. Furthermore, under the listing rules of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, any listed J-REIT such as Mori Hills must invest substantially all of its assets in real estate, real estate-related assets and liquid assets as provided by the listing requirements. Real estate in this context includes, but is not limited to, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights, and trust beneficiary interests for these assets, and real estate-related assets in this context include, but are not limited to, anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests for investment in real estate. A J-REIT that lists its units on the Tokyo Stock Exchange must

Moreover, the AIFM has established investment guidelines to provide more detailed policies based on this basic policy.
Circumstances in which the AIF may use leverage	Mori Hills may take out loans or issue long-term investment corporation bonds or short-term investment corporation bonds. Mori Hills may also enter into commitment line agreements and other agreements that involve a line of credit or ability to borrow from time to time. In addition, Mori Hills will borrow only from lenders that are certain qualified institutional investors as specified by the FIEA. Such financing activities may be undertaken for the purpose of acquiring new properties, maintaining or repairing existing properties, maintaining working capital, making distributions, and repaying tenant leasehold and security deposits, investment corporation bonds and short-term investment corporation bonds and other forms of debt.
The types and sources of leverage permitted and associated risks	Mori Hills currently has outstanding fixed and floating rate long-term loans and outstanding investment corporation bonds, as well as access to a commitment line, all of which are unsecured and unguaranteed. Mori Hills may be subject to restrictive covenants in connection with any indebtedness that may restrict Mori Hills' operations and limit its ability to make cash distributions to unitholders, to dispose of properties or to acquire additional properties. Furthermore, if Mori Hills were to violate such restrictive covenants, for example with regard to the maintenance of debt service coverage or loan-to-value ratios, lenders may be entitled to require Mori Hills to collateralize portfolio properties or demand that the entire outstanding balance be paid ahead of scheduled payments. Further, in the event of an increase in interest rates, to the extent that Mori Hills has taken on any debt with unhedged floating rates, interest payments may increase, which in turn could reduce the amount of cash available for distributions to unitholders. Higher interest rates may also limit Mori Hills' capacity for short- and long-term borrowings, which would in turn limit its ability to acquire properties, and could cause the market price of its units to decline.
Any restrictions on leverage	Under Mori Hills' Articles of Incorporation, the maximum principal amount of any particular borrowing or issuance of investment corporation bonds will be one trillion yen and the aggregate amount of all such debt will not exceed one trillion yen.
Any restrictions on collateral and asset reuse arrangements	No applicable arrangements.
Maximum level of leverage which the AIFM is entitled to employ on behalf of the AIF	Mori Hills has, in principle, set an upper limit of 65% for its loan-to-value, or LTV, ratio in order to operate with a stable financial condition. Mori Hills may, however, temporarily exceed any such levels as a result of property acquisitions or fluctuations in property appraisal value.

Procedure by which the AIF may change its investment strategy / investment policy	Changes to Mori Hills' basic investment policy require an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation. Such amendment requires a quorum of a majority of the total issued units and at least a two-thirds vote of the voting rights represented at a general meeting of unitholders.
Article 23(1) (c)
Description of the main legal implications of the contractual relationship entered into for the purpose of investment, including jurisdiction, applicable law, and the existence or not of any legal instruments providing for the recognition and enforcement of judgments in the territory where the AIF is established	Mori Hills is a corporate-type investment trust in the form of investment corporation (tōshi hōjin) provided for under the ITA. Therefore, the relationship between Mori Hills and its unitholders is governed by Mori Hills' articles of incorporation (as opposed to individual agreements), which can be amended from time to time upon resolution of a general unitholders' meeting. Mori Hills' articles of incorporation stipulate rules relating to general unitholders' meetings, including the convocation, setting of record date, exercise of voting rights, resolutions and election of Mori Hills' directors. The relationship between Mori Hills and its unitholders is also governed by, and is subject to the provisions of, Japanese law, including the ITA. The courts in Japan would recognize as a valid judgment any final and conclusive civil judgment for monetary claims (which, for this purpose, are limited to those of a purely civil nature and do not include monetary claims of the nature of criminal or administrative sanction, such as punitive damages, even though they take the form of civil claims) against Mori Hills obtained in a foreign court provided that (i) the jurisdiction of such foreign court is admitted under the laws of Japan, (ii) Mori Hills has received service of process for the commencement of the relevant proceedings, otherwise than by a public notice or any method comparable thereto, or has appeared without any reservation before such foreign court, (iii) neither such judgment nor the relevant proceeding is repugnant to public policy as applied in Japan, (iv) there exists reciprocity as to the recognition by such foreign court of a final judgment obtained in a Japanese court and (v) there is no conflicting judgement on the subject matter by any Japanese court. Mori Hills has entered into the following agreements with the AIFM and the Sponsor, each of which is governed by Japanese law: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asset management agreement dated as of February 2, 2006, as amended, between Mori Hills and the AIFM. • Support agreement dated as of August 10, 2006 among Mori Hills, the AIFM and the Sponsor. The AIFM has entered into the following agreement with the Sponsor, which is governed by Japanese law: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advisory business entrustment agreement dated as of August 10, 2006 between the AIFM and the Sponsor. Additionally, Mori Hills has entered into purchase and sale agreements with sellers and buyers in connection with the acquisition or disposition of properties, as well as trust agreements with major Japanese trust banks pursuant to which Mori Hills holds many of the properties in its portfolio in the form of trust beneficiary interests. Mori Hills is not involved in or threatened by any legal arbitration, administrative or other proceedings, the results of which might, individually or in the aggregate, be material.

Article 23(1) (g)
Description of the AIF's valuation procedure and pricing methodology, including the methods used in valuing hard-to-value assets	Mori Hills values assets in accordance with its Articles of Incorporation. The methods and standards that Mori Hills uses for the valuation of assets are based on the Ordinance on Accountings of Investment Corporations, as well as the Regulations Concerning Real Estate Investment Trusts and Real Estate Investment Corporations and other regulations stipulated by ITA, as well as Japanese GAAP. J-REITs may only use the valuation methods prescribed in the rules of the Investment Trusts Association, Japan, which emphasize market price-based valuation. Hard to value assets include assets such as equity interests in real estate anonymous associations (tokumei kumiai), beneficiary interests in trusts of money principally invested in real estate anonymous associations and tenant leasehold and security deposits. Future cash flows of hard to value assets are difficult to estimate. Mori Hills values hard to value assets differently depending on the asset, but pursuant to the ITA, the Ordinance on Accountings of Investment Corporations and the evaluation rules of the Investment Trusts Association, Japan or in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Japan applicable to J-REITs. The valuation of such hard to value assets is discussed in the notes to Mori Hills' financial statements.
Article 23(1) (h)
Description of the AIF's liquidity risk management, including redemption rights in normal and exceptional circumstances and	Net cash provided by operating activities constitutes Mori Hills' primary source of liquidity to fund distributions, interest payments on outstanding loans payable, fees to the AIFM and other service providers, property taxes, repairs and maintenance, and capital expenditures for its properties in the ordinary course of business. However, Mori Hills' ability to use cash flows from operations to finance property acquisitions is severely limited because Mori Hills is generally required to distribute in excess of 90% of its distributable profit, calculated in accordance with the Special Taxation Measures Act of

This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the AIFMD as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. This document is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of any offer to buy the units of Mori Hills REIT Investment Corporation.

- Type 3 management fee.
Mori Hills pays to the AIFM a type 3 management fee for each fiscal period. This type 3 asset management fee is equal to (i) performance of units against Tokyo Stock Exchange REIT Index, multiplied (ii) market capitalization of units, multiplied by an amount up to 0.15%, payable within three months after each fiscal period.
When the calculated amount of type 3 management fee is negative, the absolute value is subtracted from the type 1 or type 2 management fee.
(i) Performance of units against Tokyo Stock Exchange REIT Index is calculated by subtracting (b) from (a), where (a) and (b) are defined as follows:
(a) the value obtained by subtracting the final price of Mori Hills' units on the last business day of the immediately preceding fiscal period from the final price of Mori Hills' units on the last business day of the relevant fiscal period, and dividing the result by the final price of Mori Hills' units on the last business day of the immediately preceding fiscal period.
(b) The value of the final price of the non-dividend-paying index of the Tokyo Stock Exchange REIT Index published on the last business day of the relevant fiscal period minus the final price of the Tokyo Stock Exchange REIT Index on the last business day of the immediately preceding fiscal period, divided by the final price of the Tokyo Stock Exchange REIT Index on the last business day of the immediately preceding fiscal period.
(ii) Market capitalization of units is calculated by multiplying the final price of Mori Hills' units on the last business day of the relevant fiscal period by the total number of units outstanding on the last business day of the fiscal period.
- Acquisition fee.
Mori Hills pays to the AIFM an acquisition fee, when Mori Hills acquires a specified asset. This acquisition fee is an amount up to 1.0%, or 0.1% in case of a related party, of the purchase price of the asset (which means the trading value of the asset in the case of a sale and purchase transaction excluding national and local consumption taxes and expenses for acquisition), payable by the end of the month immediately following the month of such acquisition.
- Merger fee.
Mori Hills pays to the AIFM a merger fee, where (i) Mori Hills enters into a merger agreement into another entity, (ii) the AIFM provides support related to the merger including research and evaluation of the properties held by such other entity, and (iii) the merger becomes effective. This merger fee is an amount up to 1.0% of the appraisal value, as of the merger effective date, of the assets succeeded to or held by such other entity, payable by the end of the month immediately following the month of such merger.
- Adjustment clause.
In the event that Mori Hills repurchases Mori Hills' own units and do not dispose of or cancel such units by the end of the fiscal period of such repurchase, such units shall not count as units outstanding.
In the event that Mori Hills' units are consolidated or split and as a result the number of units outstanding decreases or increases, the number of units outstanding at the end of such fiscal period is calculated by applying

This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the AIFMD as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. the consolidation ratio or split ratio, as the case may be, with respect to the calculation of the type 1 management fee and type 2 management fee. With respect to the calculation of the type 3 management fee, the final price of Mori Hills' units at the end of the fiscal period in which the consolidation or split of Mori Hills' units takes place is calculated by making an adjustment based on the consolidation ratio or split ratio, as the case may be.

In the event of a rights offering and the total numbers of units outstanding increases as a result, the free allotment rate is multiplied by the amount of dividend per unit and NAV per unit with respect to the calculation of the type 1 management fee and type 2 management fee. With respect to the calculation of the type 3 management fee, the final price of Mori Hills' units at the end of the fiscal period in which a rights offering is conducted is multiplied by the free allotment rate.

Mori Hills also reimburses the AIFM for certain administrative and other costs, which are not included in Mori Hills' asset management fees.

Auditor Fee: Mori Hills may pay the independent auditor up to ¥15 million per fiscal period. The board of directors is responsible for determining the actual compensation amount.

Asset Custodian Fee:

Mori Hills pays custodian fees to Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited a custodian fee for each fiscal period payable by the last day of the month immediately following the month when the claim for the payment is made by the custodian for each fiscal period (or the preceding business day if the last day of such month is not a bank business day), by means of a bank remittance to the bank account as designated by the custodian. (Any bank remittance charges and local and national consumption taxes to be imposed on such charges shall be borne by Mori Hills.)

The custodian fee is determined as a percentage of the total amount of Mori Hills' assets as at the end of the immediately preceding fiscal period, not exceeding 0.03% of such total assets prorated over 12 months, to be calculated based on the composition of Mori Hills' assets and to be separately agreed upon between the custodian and Mori Hills and local and national consumption taxes to be imposed on the foregoing fees. Thus custodian fees will depend on the size of the property portfolio. Any fees payable for any other services which are not provided for in the asset custodian agreement shall be determined through discussions between the asset custodian and Mori Hills.

Administrative Agent Fees:

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited. Mori Hills pays to Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited a general administration fee for each fiscal period payable by the last day of the month immediately following the month when the claim for the payment is made by this administrative agent (or the preceding business day if the last day of such month is not a bank business day), by means of a bank remittance to the bank account as designated by this administrative agent. (Any bank remittance charges and local and national consumption taxes to be imposed on such charges shall be borne by Mori Hills.)

The general administration fee is up to ¥500,000 per month, to be separately agreed upon between this administrative agent and Mori Hills and local and national consumption taxes to be imposed on the foregoing fees. Any fees payable for any other services which are not provided for in the administrative agent agreement shall be determined through discussions between this administrative agent and Mori Hills.

Tokyo Kyodo Accounting Office Co., Ltd. Mori Hills pays to Tokyo Kyodo Accounting Office Co., Ltd. fees by means of a bank remittance to the bank account as designated by this administrative agent.

- Fee for monthly regular business related to accounts, accounting books and tax.

A monthly fee shall be paid in the amount agreed on by Mori Hills and this administrative agent, not to exceed the amount calculated as follows:
500,000 yen + the number of properties that Mori Hills owns as of the end of the month x 200,000 yen (excluding local and national consumption taxes)

- Fee for business related to settlements of accounts.

A fee for every fiscal period shall be paid in the amount agreed on by Mori Hills and this administrative agent; provided that the total annual fee shall not exceed the amount calculated as follows:
5,000,000 yen + the number of properties that Mori Hills owns as of the end of such fiscal period x 200,000 yen (excluding local and national consumption taxes)

- Fee for business related to handling of specific personal information.

A fee for every fiscal period shall be paid in the amount agreed on by Mori Hills and this administrative agent, not to exceed 1,000,000 yen (excluding local and national consumption taxes).

- Fee for business related to initial registration of fixed asset ledger.

Upon the acquisition of a new property (including the case of any partial acquisition, such as an acquisition of a compartmentalized ownership interest), a fee for initial registration of the property shall be paid in the amount agreed on by Mori Hills and this administrative agent, not to exceed 300,000 yen per property (excluding local and national consumption taxes).

If the fees described above become unreasonable due to changes in economic conditions etc., such fees may be revised in writing after mutual consultation.

Mori Hills is responsible for the payment of national and local consumption taxes to be imposed on the foregoing fees payable to this administrative agent.

Unitholders' Register, Special Accounts and Bond Fiscal Agent Fees:

Mori Hills pays Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation under the relevant agreements for services provided by Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation as administrative agent for Mori Hills' unitholders' register and special accounts, and pays

	MUFG Bank, Ltd. and the Norinchukin Bank under the fiscal agency agreements for services provided by MUFG Bank, Ltd. and the Norinchukin Bank as fiscal agent for certain of its investment corporation bonds, based on type and quantity of services performed.
